CENTRIPETAL

1958 was really a lot of fun. My first year at Central!

Mary Melcher) - 315

To Mary,

A real neat girl whom I will always like. I am very glad I met you and hope to know you a lot better next year. Good luck next year at Central. Be good over the summer and I will see you next year.

Yours,

Gary

Toledo, Ohio

Foreword

The boat at its dock, the railroads on its shore, the bridges over its water, the plane overhead clearly depict why Toledo is "Key to the Sea". For the East and West, the North and South, Toledo, situated on a natural harbor in the center of the glass industry of the world, offers trade access to the Sea. While coal, machinery, grain and glass are sent out, other materials such as cheese, iron ore, gravel and petroleum come here and are transported by rail, plane or boat to all parts of the United States.

In many ways Central, our Key to Catholic Co-education, resembles Toledo, our Key to the Sea.

All goods brought to the Toledo harbor must be sorted and prepared for the correct port. Trained men and women carry on this work under the supervision of the port authorities. Similarly, Central's faculty, under the guidance of our principal, Monsignor Harrington, receives the students and prepares them for their place in the future of Toledo.

As the many bridges over its river connect focal points in the city and enable adequate transportation of materials to the dock so do the students, who come from various sections of the city, link the Catholic parishes, the vital points of Catholic education, with Central.

High in the office buildings, which cluster near the port the city's master minds are planning and guiding the work needed for the completion of our port to the Sea. At Central, in the classroom, the students are endeavoring to prepare themselves to become useful educated men and women in our city.

On the huge loading docks, the machinery on the waterfront must be strong and in order to stay that way it must be kept in top working condition. Youth must be strengthened for its part in life and the Sports program prescribes long hours of strenuous, body-building calisthenics to sustain the athlete's best form.

As the networks of railroads, channeling goods from distant places and parts of the city, aid in building up the docks, so too, the many organizations at Central, offering participation and leadership in the extra-curricular activities help students in becoming better citizens.

Proudly, we point to Toledo "Key to the Sea" and to its counterpart Central "Key to Catholic Co-education."

Dedication

Frequently, when we speak of a school we mention its faculty and student body, omitting the men and women who are necessary in maintaining it. In Central, though not in the classroom, these men and women devote their lives to our Catholic education. One, such person, is Miss Catherine Schubert.

Miss Schubert, who came from Good Shepherd, is herself a graduate of Central. Here, as a senior, she edited a column for the Centric, was the girls' sports editor for the Centripetal, held the position of class treasurer, and was a member of the Mission Society. She also captained the girls' varsity basketball team, and did a gypsy dance in the senior class play, "Peggy."

As Monsignor Harrington's secretary, Miss Schubert has shown an active interest in the school, the faculty, and the student body. Many of her suggestions for Central's betterment are in effect today. The words of Christ, "As long as you did it for these, the least of My brethren, you did it for Me," apply well to her.

And so, as you have dedicated your life to Central Catholic High School, we, the Centripetal Staff, dedicate this, the 1958 Centripetal, to you, Miss Catherine Schubert.

Miss Catherine Schubert

Dear Central Catholic

During the last four years we, the class of '58, have felt secure within your beautiful structure. Your part in molding our characters is completed and we must leave you with your efforts manifested in our daily lives.

Four years ago we came to you, awed by your bigness. Upon our departure we leave with great respect for what is enclosed within that bigness.

We are grateful for the training given to us by your dedicated teachers, and we are sorry we will no longer be able to receive as students, their help. However, we will never forget their wise counsel. Their guidance has served as an asset to better prepare us to meet and conquer the problems we will encounter in the future.

In leaving you we promise we will always uphold the ideals you have so wisely instilled in us. And in the words of our beloved Alma Mater song we say—"We'll cherish you forever and love you Central High; All praise to you our Mother, we love you Central High."

Your dedicated Seniors of '58

Nurse Office

Central's Healing Center

One of the busiest rooms in the school is the "Healing Center" located in room 224. The nurse, Sister Mary Aloysius R.S.M., treats anything from a minor cut to a broken bone.

By supervising their medical check-up, Sister makes sure that Central has healthy freshmen.

Dick Szymanski receives first aid from Sister M. Aloysius.

Attendance Office

Guilty or not Guilty?

White slips, blue slips, pink slips — If you keep your colors straight, the solution is quite simple. The white slips admit students to class; pink means they were tardy while the blue one states they were not excused.

Sister Cleopha gives Pat Hentges a blue slip.

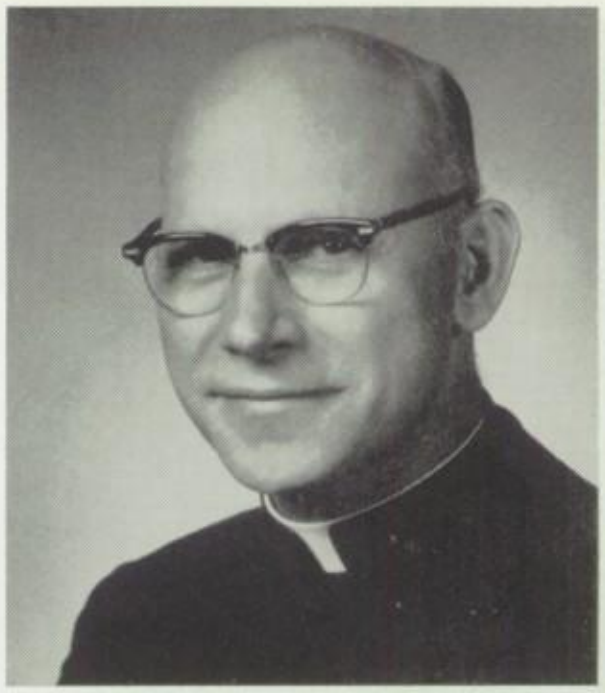
Retreat

Moments for Meditation

Just as there is progress in every aspect of life today, the Central students are given the opportunity for spiritual progress during the annual three day retreat. Through the spiritual exercises, the students draw closer to their supreme goal—God.



Rev. Raymond Oosdyke, OFM. Conv.

L. Kubicki, F. Kay and M. Jurek prepare retreat poster for main corridor.

Julia Filipowicz, Mary Beth Daly, Kathleen Uyehara, Sheila Mennitt, and Joanne Kurtzmax prepare altars for the Lenten season.

Religion

Key to Knowing, Loving and Serving

Without knowledge, love cannot be present. Without knowledge and love, serving is impossible. Therefore, through the four year religion course, Centralites are given the opportunity to know God. Catholic principles are instilled and the student learns to apply them to his daily life.

After knowledge has been gained, love can then spring forth. The student learns to love God with his whole heart, soul, mind and strength, and his neighbor as himself for the love of God.

Finally, the goal is attained. Lives are led in accordance with the "will of God." Religion, which is so important to everyone's life, is the key to the door of heaven.

Senior Religion is especially important because the three states of life are studied. Whatever state is chosen "Service of God" becomes the motto.

English

Mastering Our Native Language

"Tony Sobczak, what is the predicate?" asks Mrs. Brown.

Central's students are given the opportunity to study the classics and grammatical uses in the extensive English course offered.

Macbeth and Caesar are only two of the many classics studied in this course along with every phase of grammar.

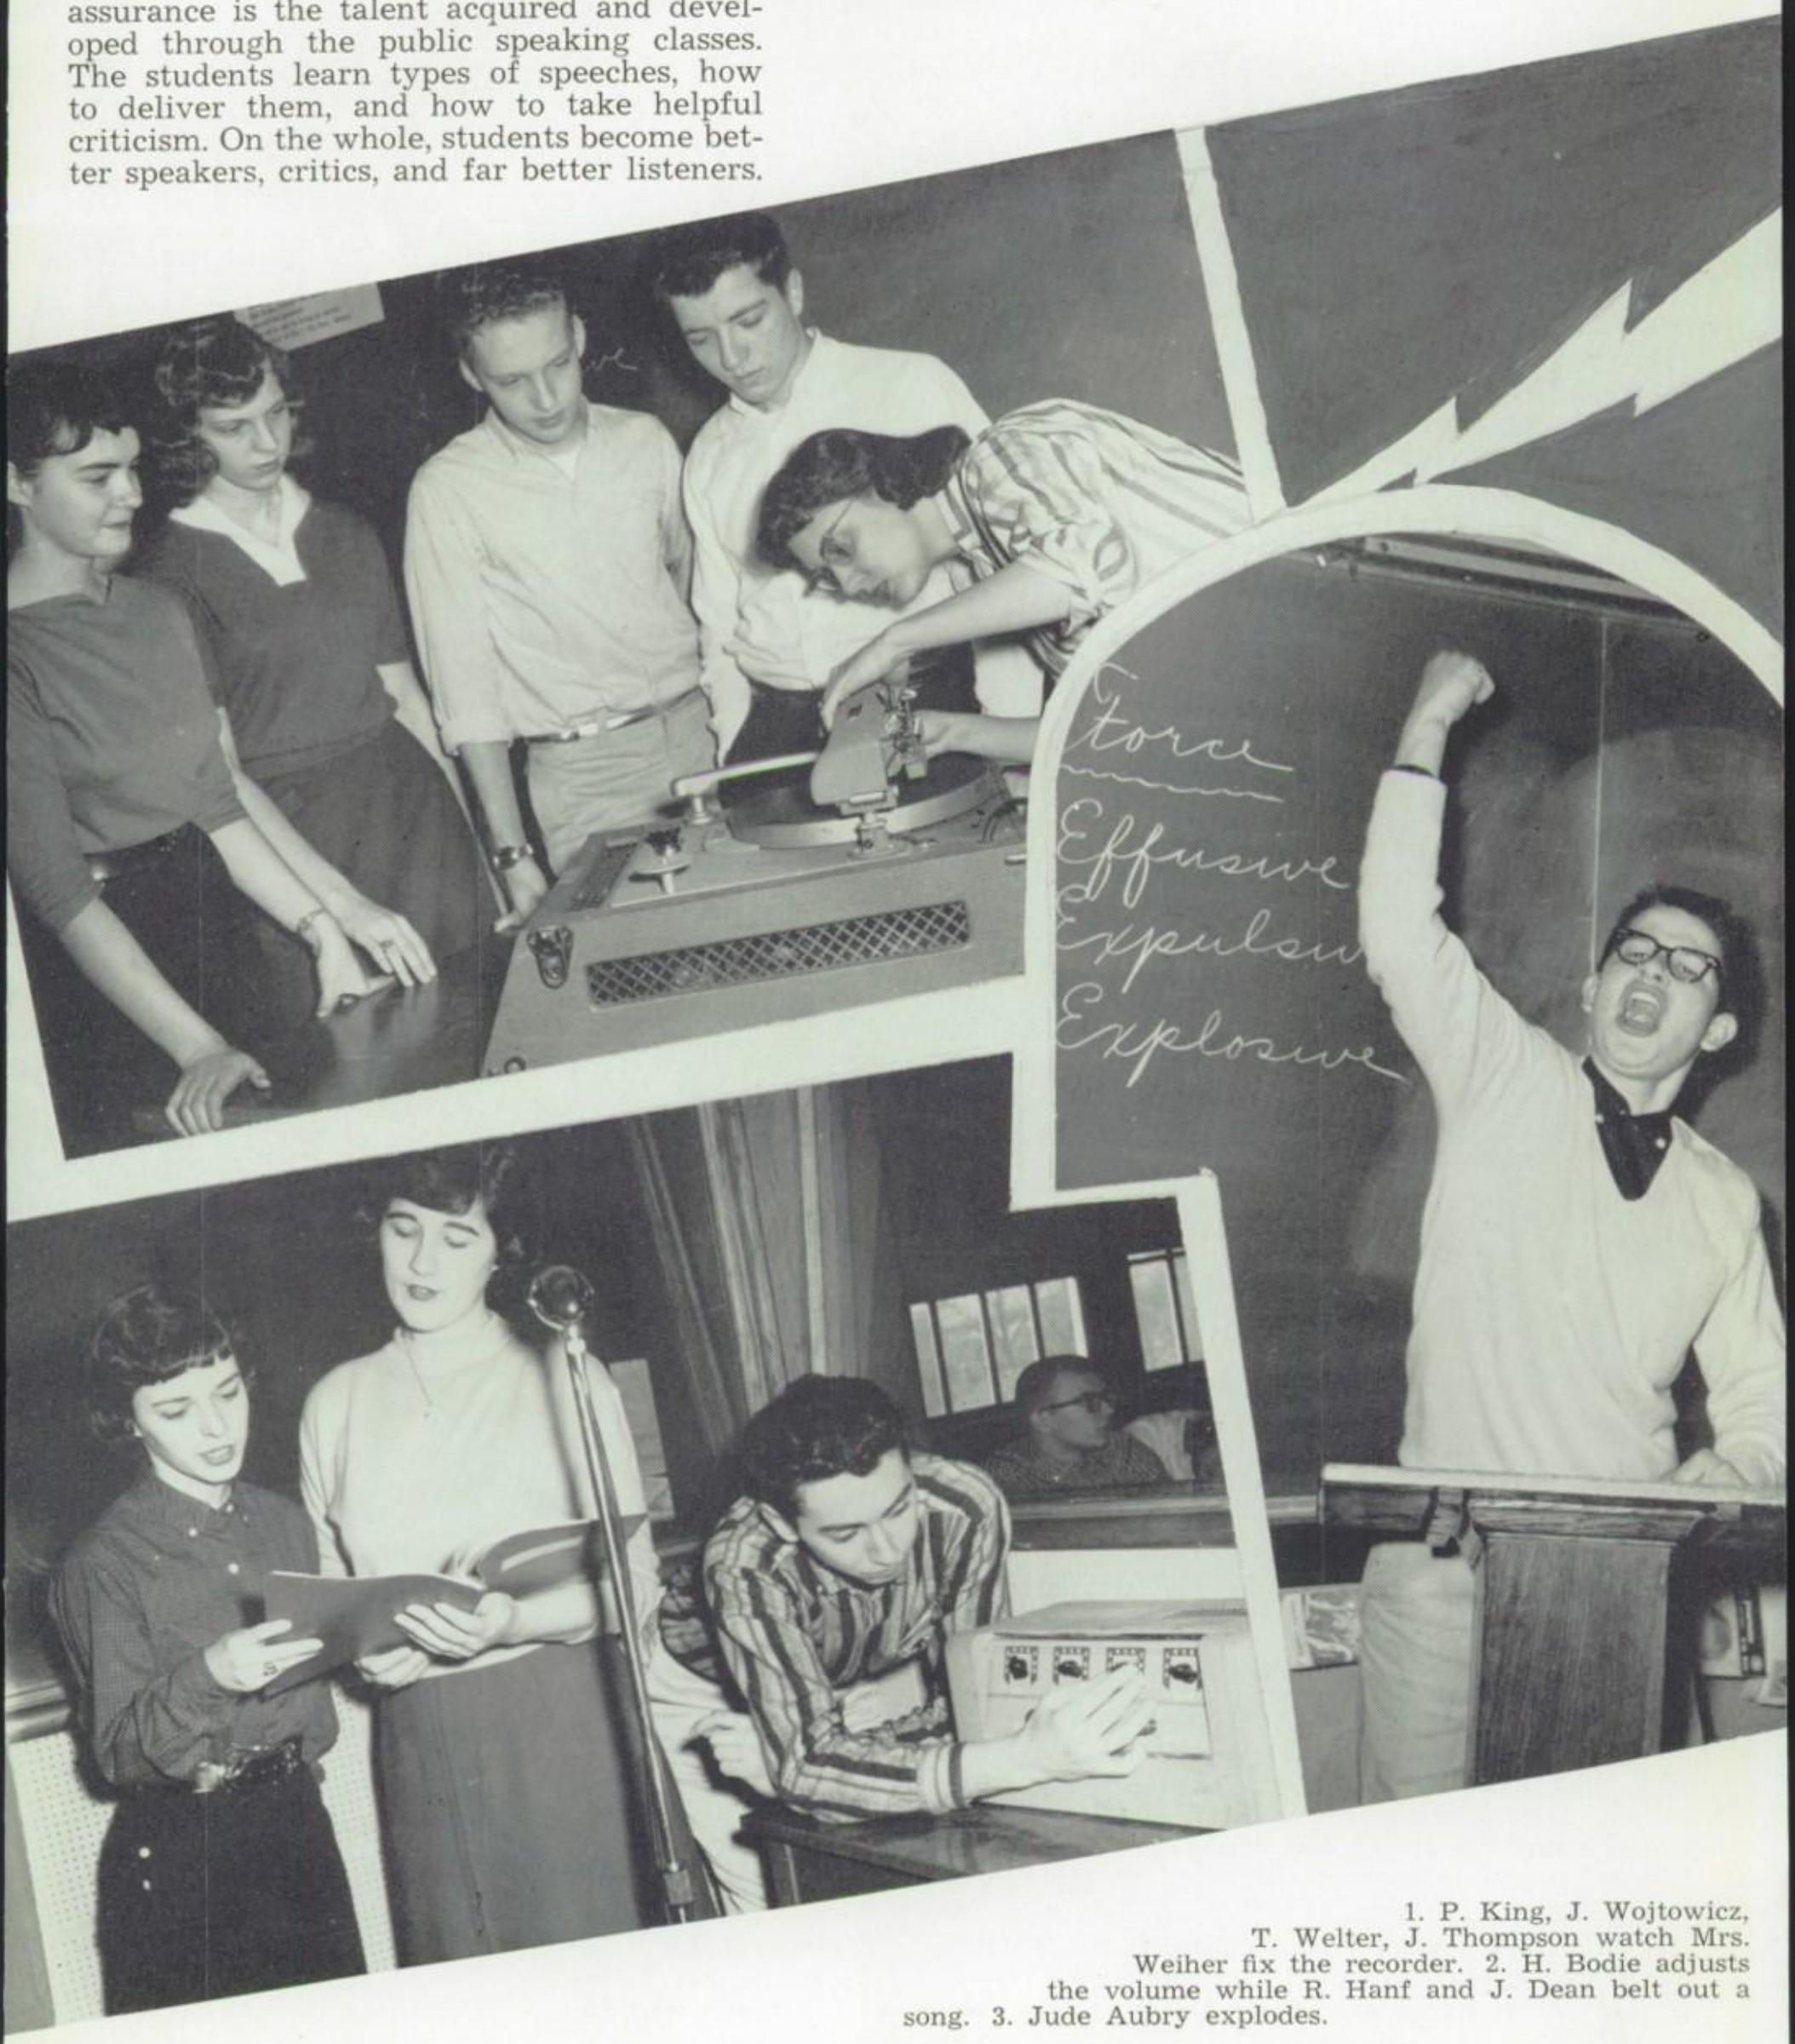
Essays constitute a great part of the course and many of the students, through their efforts, brought honor and esteem to the school. Forty-four students were rated excellent and received Certificates of Acceptance for the essays that were published in the National Essay Anthology.

Central also placed three winners in the CYO Essay Contest. In the senior division, Robert Doppler achieved first place, while Barbara Mizerny placed fifth. Sue Yarton was third place winner for the Juniors.

Public Speaking

Budding Toastmasters

The art of speaking with poise, and self assurance is the talent acquired and developed through the public speaking classes. The students learn types of speeches, how to deliver them, and how to take helpful criticism. On the whole, students become better speakers, critics, and far better listeners.



1. P. King, J. Wojtowicz, T. Welter, J. Thompson watch Mrs. Weiher fix the recorder. 2. H. Bodie adjusts the volume while R. Hanf and J. Dean belt out a song. 3. Jude Aubry explodes.

Research pays off for F. Stukenborg, E. Hoffman, S. Davis, T. Dorr, C. Gradel, C. Seren in a "vision" of Bernadette and Our Lady.

French

Lourdes Comes to Central

"Ave, Ave, Ave, Maria"—The stanzas of this beautiful Lourdes hymn flowed from the classrooms of the French classes this year. 1958 is the one hundredth anniversary of Our Lady's appearance at Lourdes, France. to Bernadette Soubirous. This occasion provided much interesting subject matter for the classes this year. It also showed that the study of French opens numerous opportunities for students in the career world.

With song and drama, the second-year French students honored Our Lady in this the centennial anniversary year of her apparition to Bernadette. After reading books, magazines and Catholic periodicals on St. Bernadette Soubirous, the apparitions and cures, the students planned and reinacted original scenes with French dialogue. The students of all classes collected clippings and pictures for this project. The French students also sang the Lourdes hymn at a Marian assembly.

2. D. Malicki explains the flags to S. Mercurio, J. Hernandez, E. Preas, D. Sobczak, G. Olenzler and J. Paczelaj.

Spanish

Tongue of Our Southern Neighbors

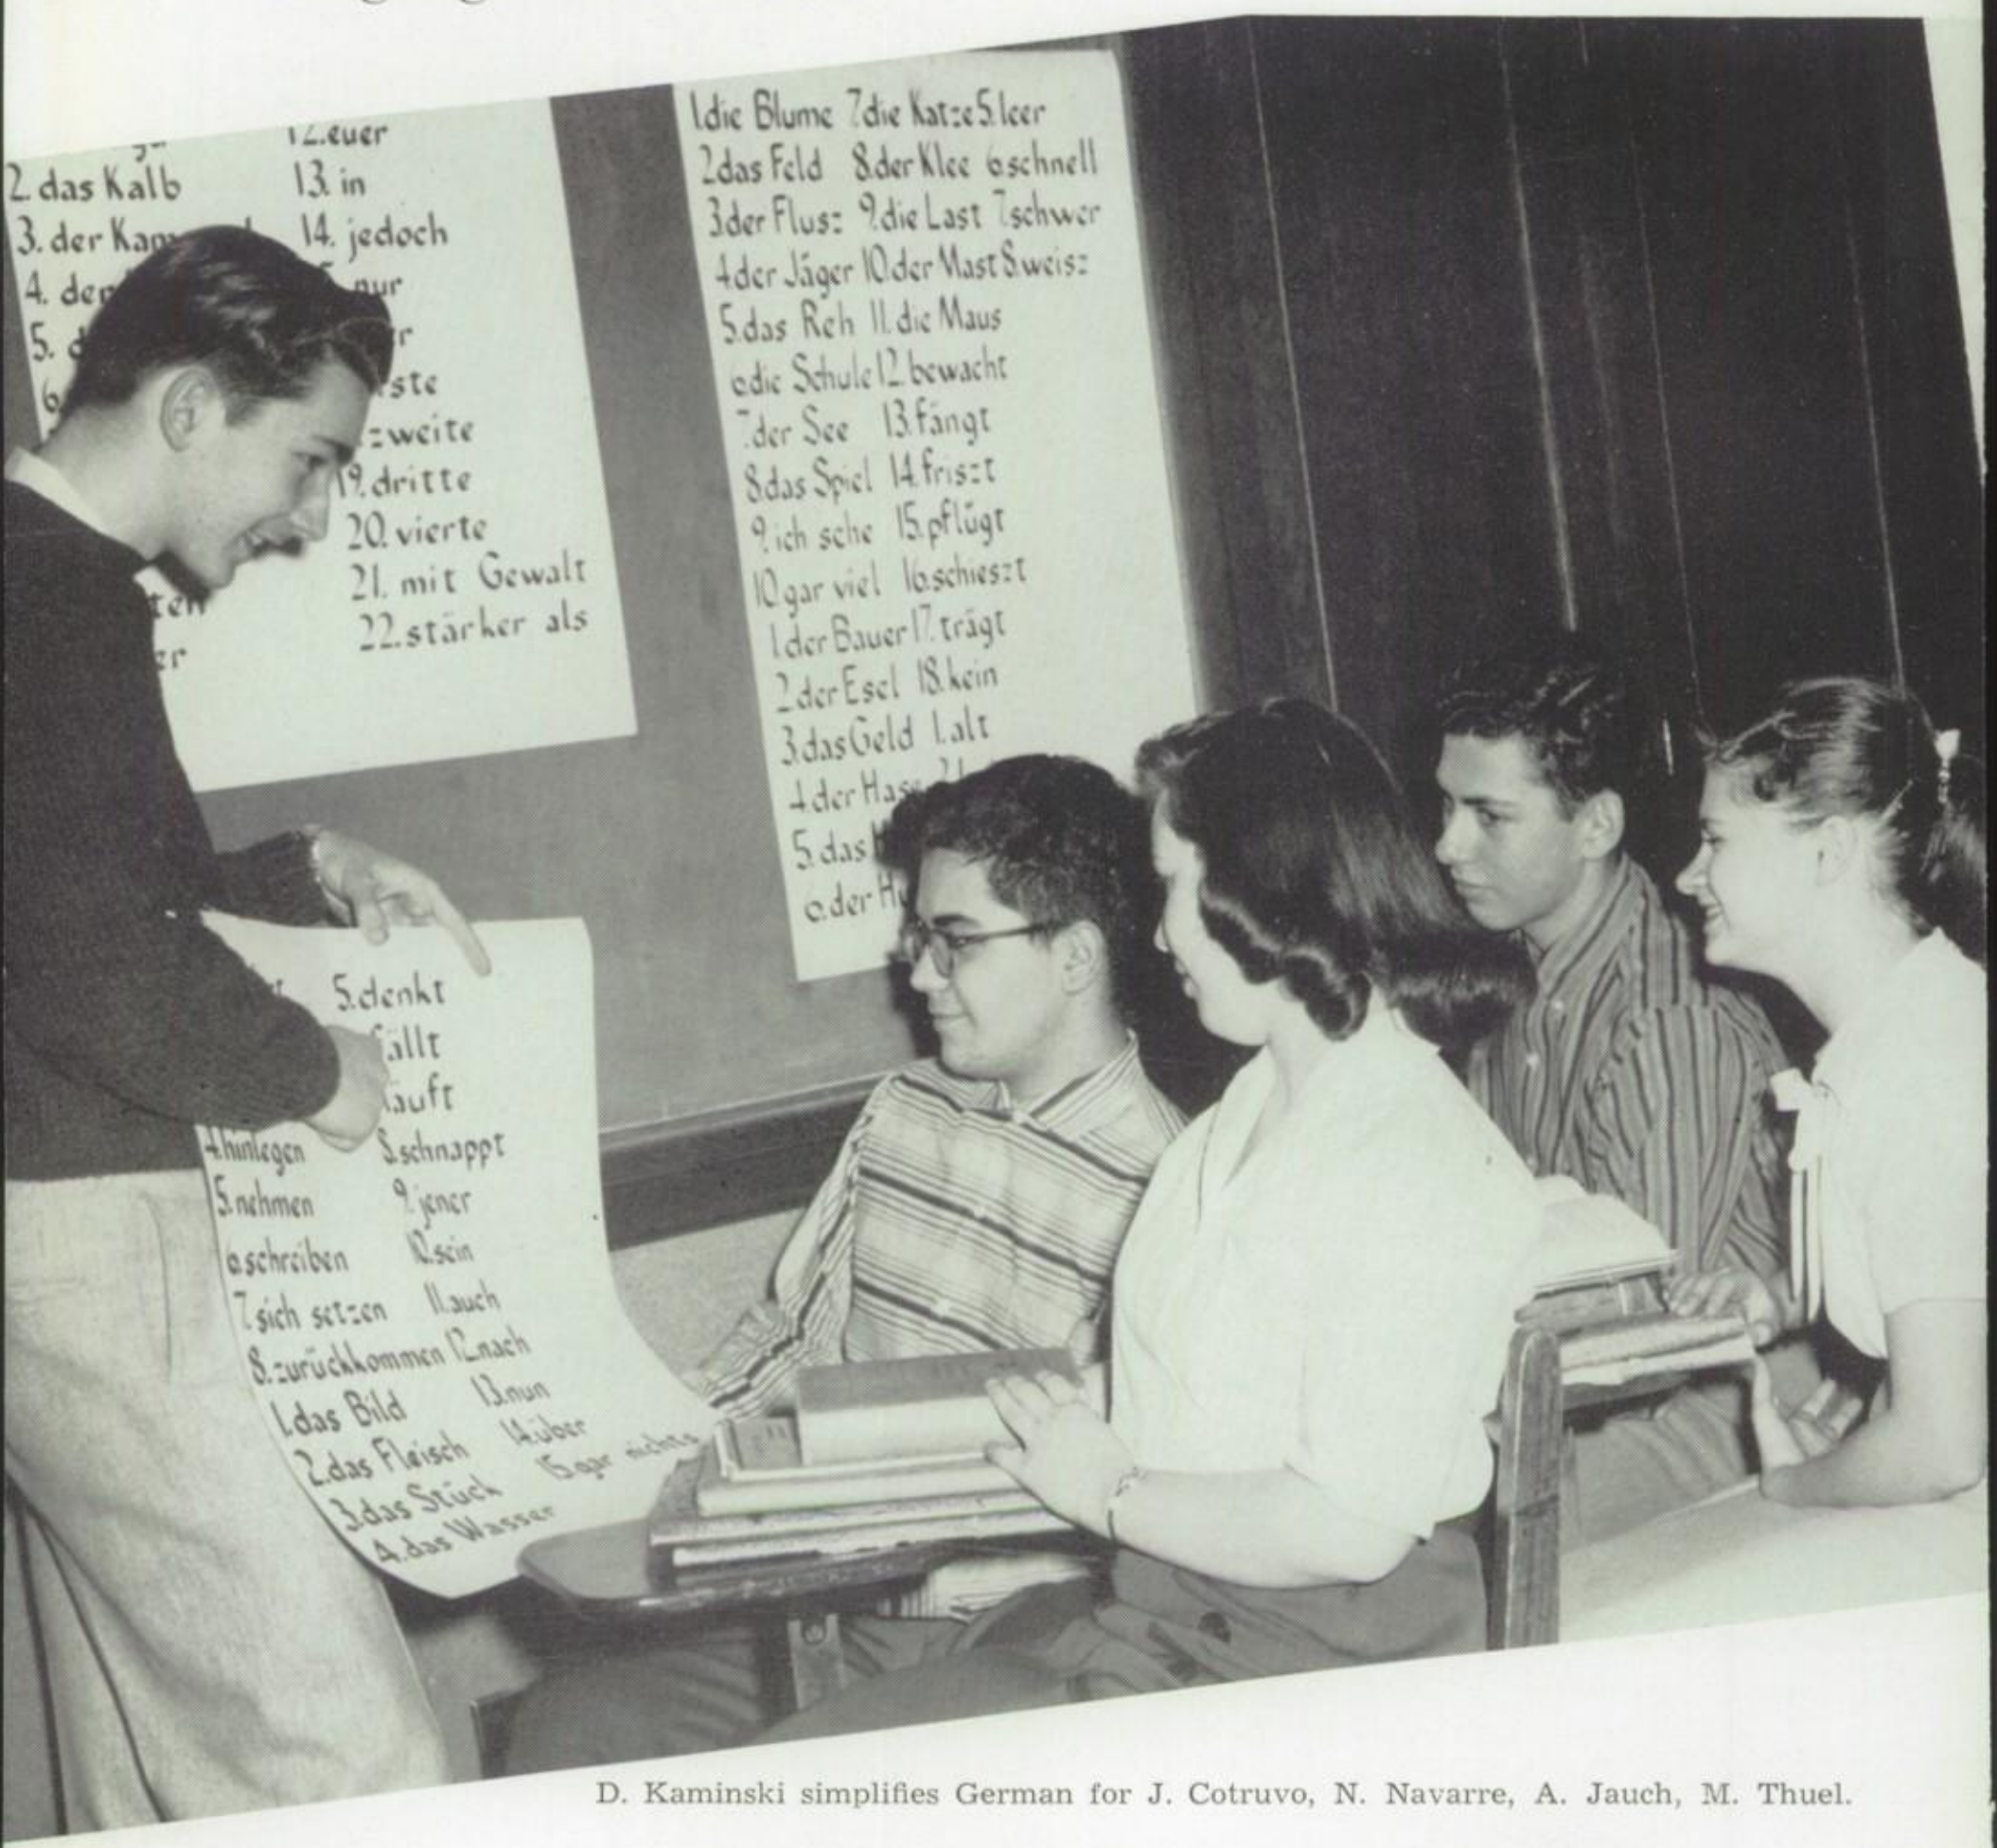
¡Buenos días! Cómo está usted? ¡Muy bien, gracias! are some familiar phrases known to all the Spanish students.

The Centralites not only receive a thorough study of the language itself but also learn to appreciate the spirit and culture of the Spanish courses give the classes a better understanding of their Spanish-speaking neighbors.

Since the Americas celebrate Pan American Day on April 14, the Spanish classes at Central also participate in the celebration by having a panel discussion about the twenty-one countries concerned. By becoming acquainted with these countries the students realize more fully the importance of the unity of all in one continental community.

German

Language of Research



D. Kaminski simplifies German for J. Cotruvo, N. Navarre, A. Jauch, M. Thuel.

The students who undertake this modern language course find German a fascinating subject. In the first year, the students learn the basic rules of vocabulary and pronunciation.

The second year of the course offers students a more complete understanding of the language itself, the customs, industries, natural resources and geography of the area.

German magazines in the classrooms acquaint the students with current information about the country and its people.

Jim Kerscher adds the finishing touches to his mural as Frances Harrison and Norma Heter watch.

Latin

A Dead Subject?

"Latin is a dead language," so they say. However, at Central it really lives! More Centralites study Latin than they do any other foreign language. During the four years of Latin its fundamentals are learned, Caesar's Wars are fought, Cicero's Orations are delivered and Virgil's Aeneid is translated and scanned.

Central students have received many honors for achievement in the National Auxilium Latinum Test, a test participated in by 26,000 students throughout the world.

Voters, Citizens, Patriots of Tomorrow

History

Mankind's story, is thoroughly developed from its earliest stages—in Ancient history; its progresses through the centuries—in Modern history; its culmination at the present time—in American history.

Since the position of world leadership has been thrust upon the United States, its people have taken upon themselves a world-wide responsibility. It is necessary then that the students know and understand the peoples of the world, their customs, and their governments.

With an understanding of human freedom and brotherhood and a recognition of their responsibilities as citizens of a changing world, the students of history will be prepared to aid mankind.

Government

Central in presenting the study of government presumes that high school seniors are both capable and desirous of thinking like adults. The thoughtful student learns to distinguish between fact and opinion. Though he may not be an expert in government, he develops the ability to evaluate opinion for what it is worth.

Sociology

The senior students of sociology endeavor to acquaint themselves with the problems and difficulties of society. Christian ideals are instilled in the minds of the students to enable them to meet these daily problems, and emerge as Christian citizens in our democracy.

Economics

Economics, the science dealing with the laws of production, exchange, distribution and consumption, expects the student to study the problems and opportunities of our country. During the year, the seniors engaged in the selling of stock and bonds, and observed the profits and losses of their expenditures.

1. P. Rethinger, R. Balser, T. Anaple, N. Jagodzinski, P. O'Leary—planning a revolt?
2. F. Kazmierski and R. Bueter know the answer to Andy Oravets' question while L. Petro, D. Lewandowski and J. LaMont look on.

3. Joan Freppel and Beverly Mittendorf display their efforts.
4. Carol Czubek and Ann Connolly work at sculpture ceramics.
5. Marie Kovach, Margaret Virag, and Brook Miller apply enamel to copper.
6. Katherine Palmer and Joanne Michalak work on CYO posters.

Girls' Art

Reflect Scientific Advances

Girls in art kept pace with the scientific advances of this International Geophysical Year in two ways: 1) they created posters, dress designs, enamel jewelry, ceramic sculpture, mosaics and scrapbooks which relieved the tensions caused by experimentation with space missiles; 2) they developed contemporary designs inspired by new materials and action in outer space.

Margaret Burnard won first prize and Louise Kondalski placed second in the ninth and tenth grade division of the National Safety Poster Contest. In the CYO Gaudette Poster Contest, Katherine Palmer and Barbara Beyer were first and second.

Boys' Art

Modern Day Architects

Central's Michaelangeloes create lovely art work under the direction of Sister M. Genevieve, R.S.M. This year the art students became architects by designing and building in ceramics scale modern homes, which were displayed in the seventh annual Regina Marie Art Festival. The senior students worked on the art set-up for the 1958 Centripetal. They also designed the program cover for Oklahoma, Central's operetta this year.

1. Diligent dabblers: B. McLisch and D. Moch.

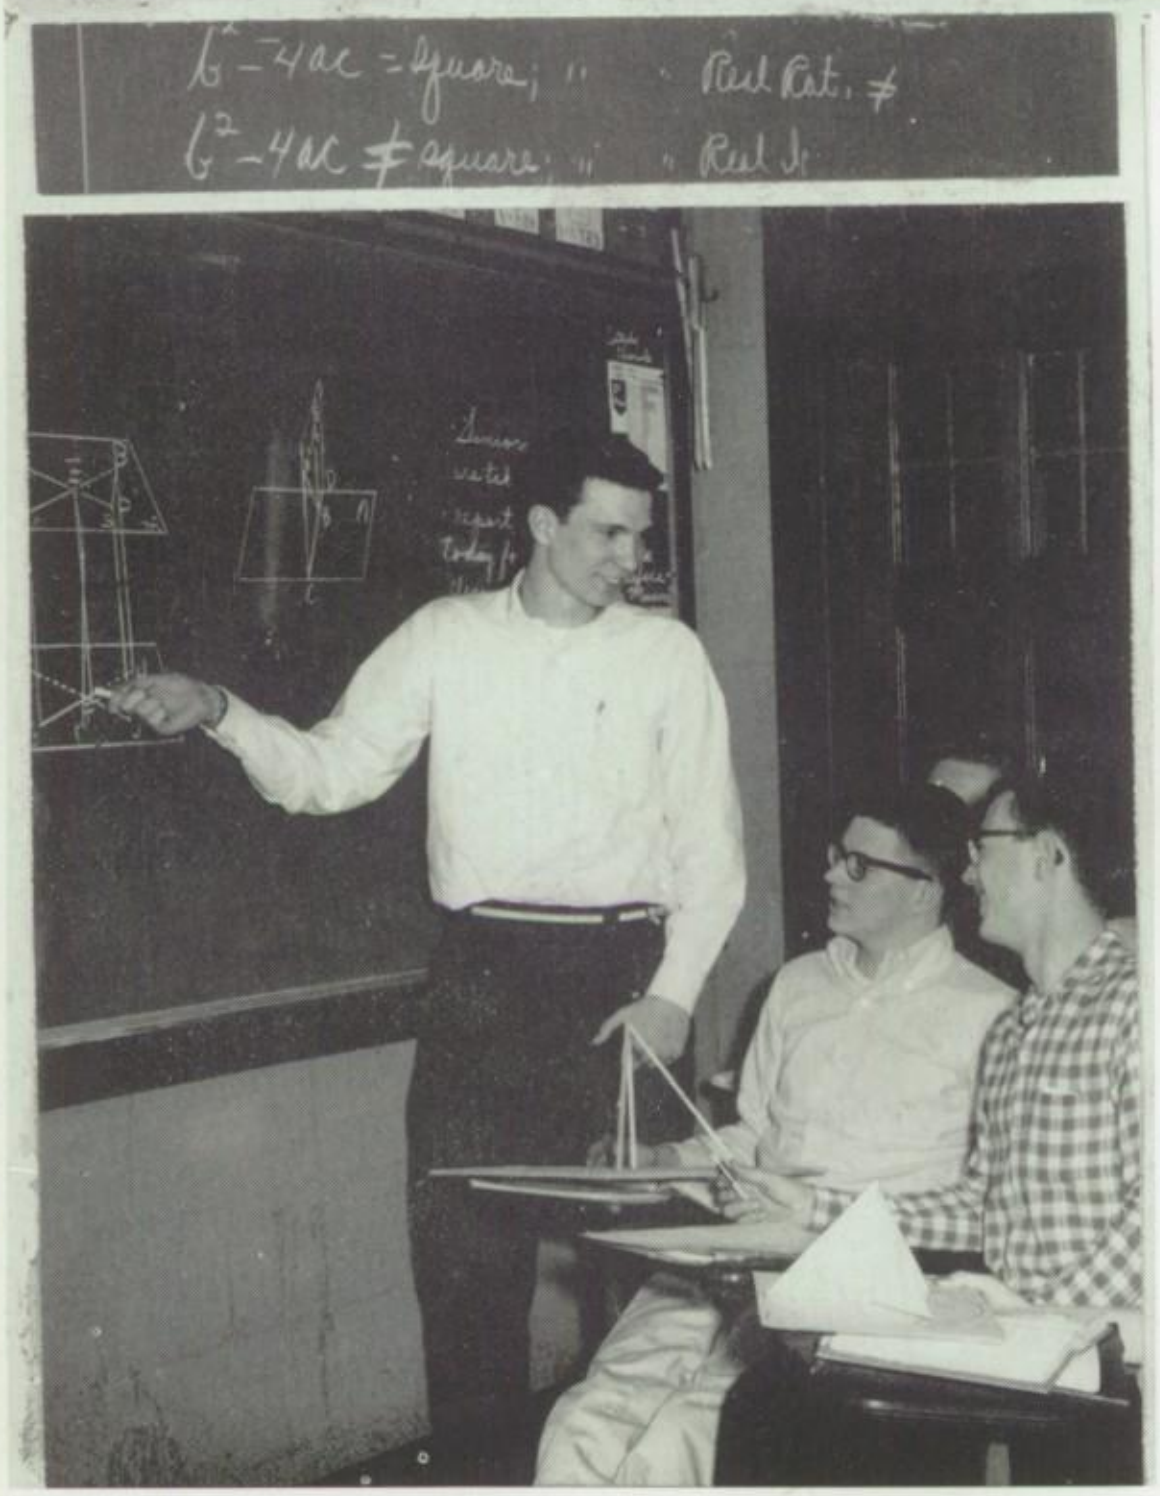
1. R. Krempa, J. Rihacek, B. Bacik, B. Napierala and C. Nartker view the workings of the Tiniac.



2. Jim Sherman and Dan Harrigan listen attentively to Larry Mersing.

Mathematics

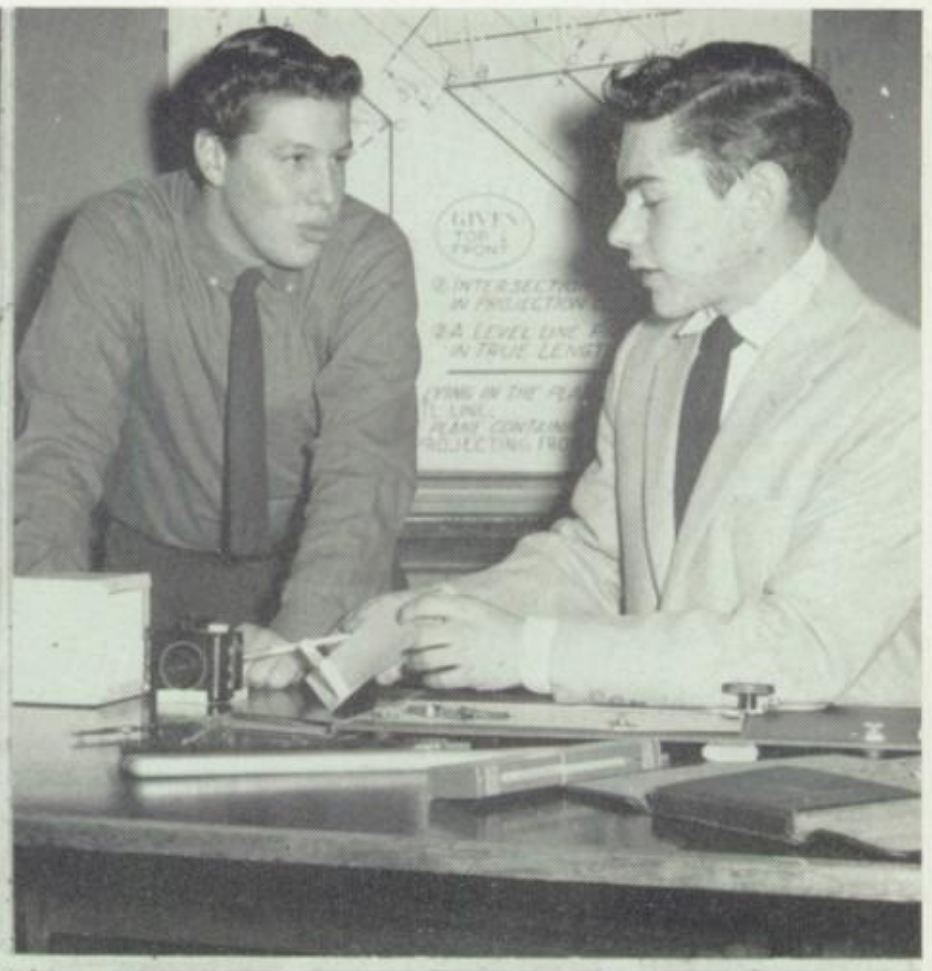
Challenge For Thinkers

"Why should I study mathematics beyond arithmetic? I'll never use it." Sometimes students utter these words, but not all Centralites. The four year mathematical course prepares the student for the various trades and professional uses of mathematics. These young men and women are needed to carry on the work already begun by others and to make the wonderful discoveries of the future.

The students, who do not put the algebra and plane geometry to practical use, have developed their power to think and to work in a more systematic way.

The top senior mathematics students of Central participated in the 1958 Mathematical Contest March 27. This contest is jointly sponsored by the Mathematical Association of America and the Society of Actuaries.

From the mathematical department, John Czarnecki entered his paper on the Theory of Probability (Unitary vs. Statistical) in the Science Day held at Bowling Green, Ohio.



1. Frank Tomes shows Robert Hechel where the drive shaft connects.
2. A. Simon explains "how it works," while D. Hemmeter watches.

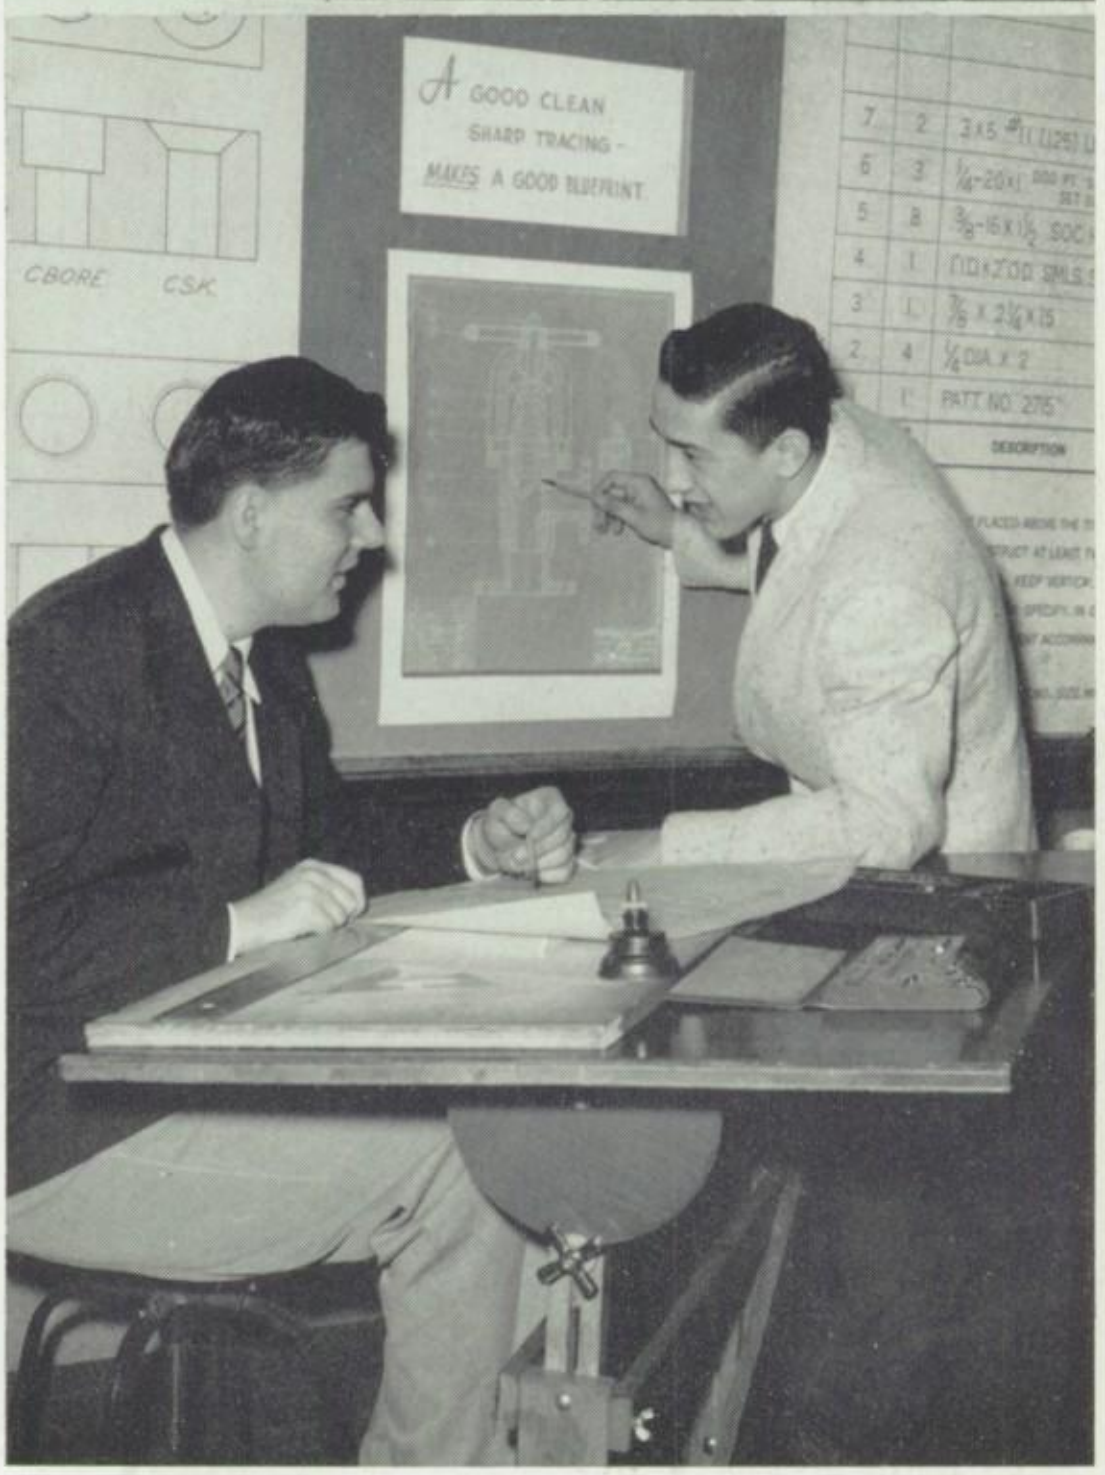
Drafting

Tomorrow's Engineers

With the great need for engineers today in our fast-moving technical society, the two-year drafting course offered at C.C.H.S. is geared to provide the fundamentals which are considered basic to engineering design or industrial drafting.

The principles of orthographic projection (language used by all draftsmen), of pictorial representation, as well as sheet-metal pattern development are offered during the first year. Those students who hope to enter mechanical engineering field take a second year of drafting. Several phases of machine drawing are studied, including shape and size description, fasteners, cams, and gears.

During the past school year, Allen Simon designed and drew up plans for a water-tight camera case for his Argus C-3. Larry Rotando made up a complete assembly drawing of a Wasp 049 CC. airplane engine, including every detail. Similarly, Herman Trabbic drew a complete tracing of a Ford engine carburetor.



3. Lewis Bartko listens as David Lanning traces fine points.

1. C. Caroots and A. Carr check their "brew." 2. Joe Daly meditates on a mechanism.
3. Pete Kessler elucidates for Gloria Konecny and Pat Wozny.

Physics

Scientists Storehouse

Now, more than ever, there is a demand for mathematicians, engineers, and scientists. To help meet this critical need, Sister Caroline and Mr. Fischer are infusing in the minds of their students the fundamental principles of physics which will, in turn, enable them to solve practical problems involving physical principles and to keep abreast of new scientific developments.

Two days of the week are spent in the laboratory where Sister Caroline directs the students with their experiments. The remaining three days the sudents spend with Mr. Fischer, gaining valuable information by means of lectures and demonstrations.

At the Bowling Green State University's Science Day, March 22, Roger Krempa received a rating of excellent for his project.

Chemistry

Future Moon Plotters

The rapid advancement of science in this new atomic age of satellites and electrons has widened and opened new horizons to the young men and women of our generation. This field affords outlets to every phase of life and enables the young chemist to obtain a general and useful knowledge of them.

Here in this world of test tubes, fires, acids, and atoms, the students come to know the composition of the materials which are a part of their daily living.

Janet Carney, a senior chemistry student, was one of the five and the only girl from Northwestern Ohio who passed the Science Aptitude Examination as the first part of the seventeenth annual Science Talent Search.

Physiology

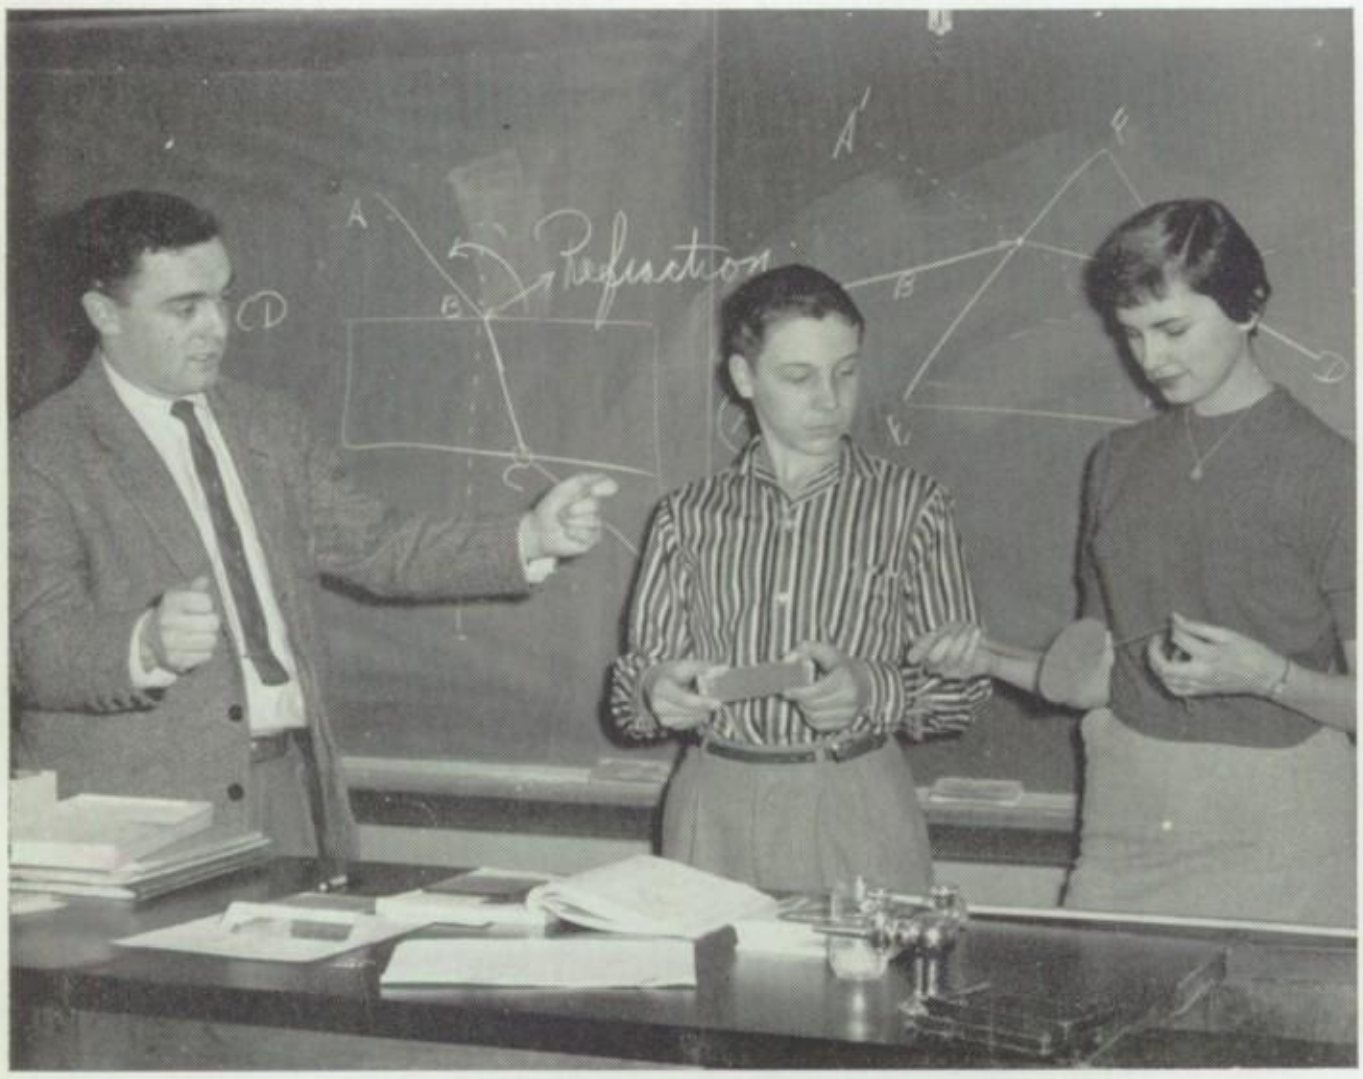
Bridge for Physical Fitness

Physiology provides practical information concerning the body's composition and functions.

Through this information, the student learns to adjust to various problems of phyical fitness that confront him. It is a great asset to those who are interested in the various health professions. These professions might include physicians, dentists, pharmacists, and nurses.

Students enter their projects in the Science Day at Bowling Green, Ohio. Ten students, Patricia O'Bryan, Joyce Krupp, Joan Freppel, Carol Skudlarek, Marilyn Martin, Roselyn Davis, Jill Fraley, Mary Ann Bonk, Carolyn Culbertson, and Susanne Prusakiewicz, participated and merited ratings.

Sue Prusakiewicz, Carolyn Culbertson, Patricia O' Bryan, Rosalyn Davis, Jill Fraley study the human skull.



Mr. Finn gives additional aid to Bill Hickock and Camille Midulak.

General Science

Adventures in Science

Interest and enjoyment are added to the life of the student when his "eyes are opened" to the science that surrounds him.

General science includes both the biological and the physical science. These studies give an excellent foundation for advance work in biology, physics, and chemistry.

During the course of the year each student is responsible for a project. This year eight students entered their projects in the Science Day held at Bowling Green, Ohio. Results showed that Alan Skrzyniecki, James Neuser, Barbara Lozinski, and David Meyers received superior ratings; John Di-Domineco and Michael Schaal received excellent ratings; and Leonard Churski received a good rating.

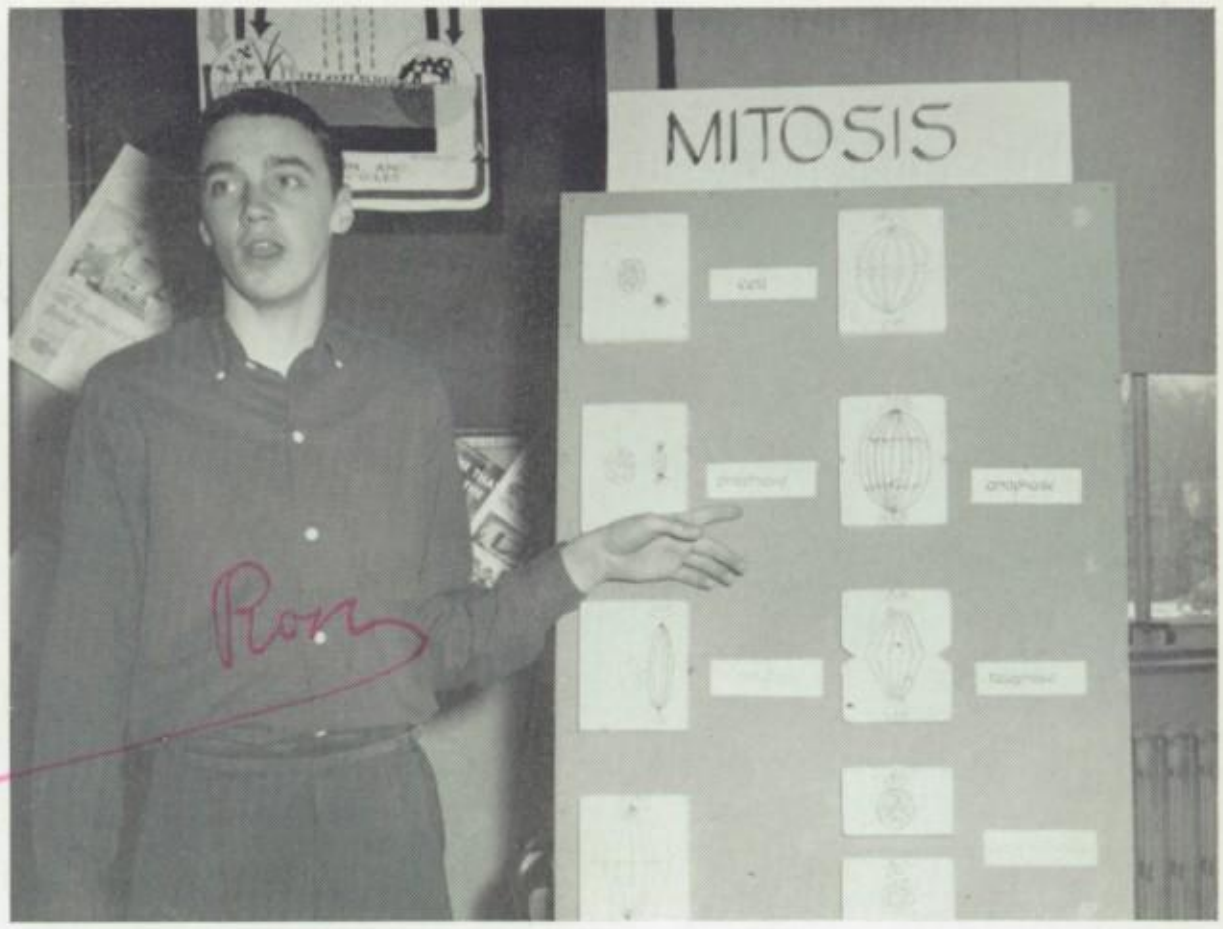
Biology

Portal of Nature

In biology, God's intricate plans for man, plants, and animals are studied in an intensive manner. The development and growth of life, from its basic stages, one celled plants and animals, to its complex stage, man, is a challenge to students doing research.

In the laboratory classes the students planted corn and beans to study germination; dissected frogs, starfish, crayfish, and earthworms to understand their function; and visualized, through the microscope, the lower forms of life.

Biology, thus, gives students an understanding of the workings of God in His universe.



Ron Hillabrand explains various stages of Mitosis.

Home Economics

Art of Homemaking

The question is frequently presented: "What is Home Economics?" The required answer: It is the science and art of homemaking. This however, means more than just what it may be interpreted as, it takes in the study of every aspect of home life, from the efficient planning of a kitchen, to the relation of the family to the community.

The fields of homemaking included in classes taught by Sister Mary Kenneth and Sister Mary Martina, are: the study of art; related and interior design; family economics and home management; family relations and child development; food and nutrition; housing and household equipment; textiles and clothing.

The Red Cross Training Course is offered in the second and third year classes, and home care of the sick is given during second year and Home Baby Care during the third year.

The home economics course will prepare the student for her all-important role of wife and mother in families of the not-too-distant future.

2. D. Kaminski and D. Melle compare notes.

Music

Soothing Sounds

Two courses "Music Appreciation" and "Harmony and Theory" are offered to students who have a desire to know and understand music.

Music Appreciation helps students to understand many forms of composition, the composer, and the story of the music, an important part in the appreciation of program music. The works of the earliest masters, music through the ages, and to the present time are studied and contrasted for a greater appreciation of the wealth of worth-while music.

Students who enroll in Harmony and Theory classes are preparing for a musical career. Through an approach to harmony they learn to analyze, harmonize, and compose their own original musical ideas.

The sophomore and freshmen Girls' Choruses sang at assemblies, including the Christmas program. The Choir Guild was organized this year with volunteers from these two groups and others who wished to assist in the daily singing of the High Mass in our Chapel. Climaxing their program of the year's activities, they sang the Mass for the seniors, the Sunday before graduation.

Commercial

Door to Business World

The teachers of the commercial department do an excellent job in preparing the students for their part in the business world of tomorrow.

The course of business arithmetic thoroughly discusses every phase of finance according to its importance in the business world.

First year typing classes are given the opportunity to develop a complete mastery of the keyboard and movable parts of the typewriter. In the second year students are shown the uses of the typewriter that would benefit them in the business world.

First year shorthand offers the student basic fundamentals in vocabulary building, brief forms, and phrases, while the second year presents simple exercises which progress to the difficult problems of the business office. Typing is correlated with shorthand during this year.

Bookkeeping is essential to all commercial students because of the basic principles in this study of systematic habits, clerical neatness, and accuracy. This is the foundation for tomorrow's accountant.

Office practice endeavors to train the potential secretary in the use of business machines, the system of filing, answering business letters, and all other phases of secretarial work.

The predominant aim of Mr. O'Rourke's Commercial Law classes is to teach the importance of law to the individual, to business, and to society. For illustration purposes actual court room cases are held.

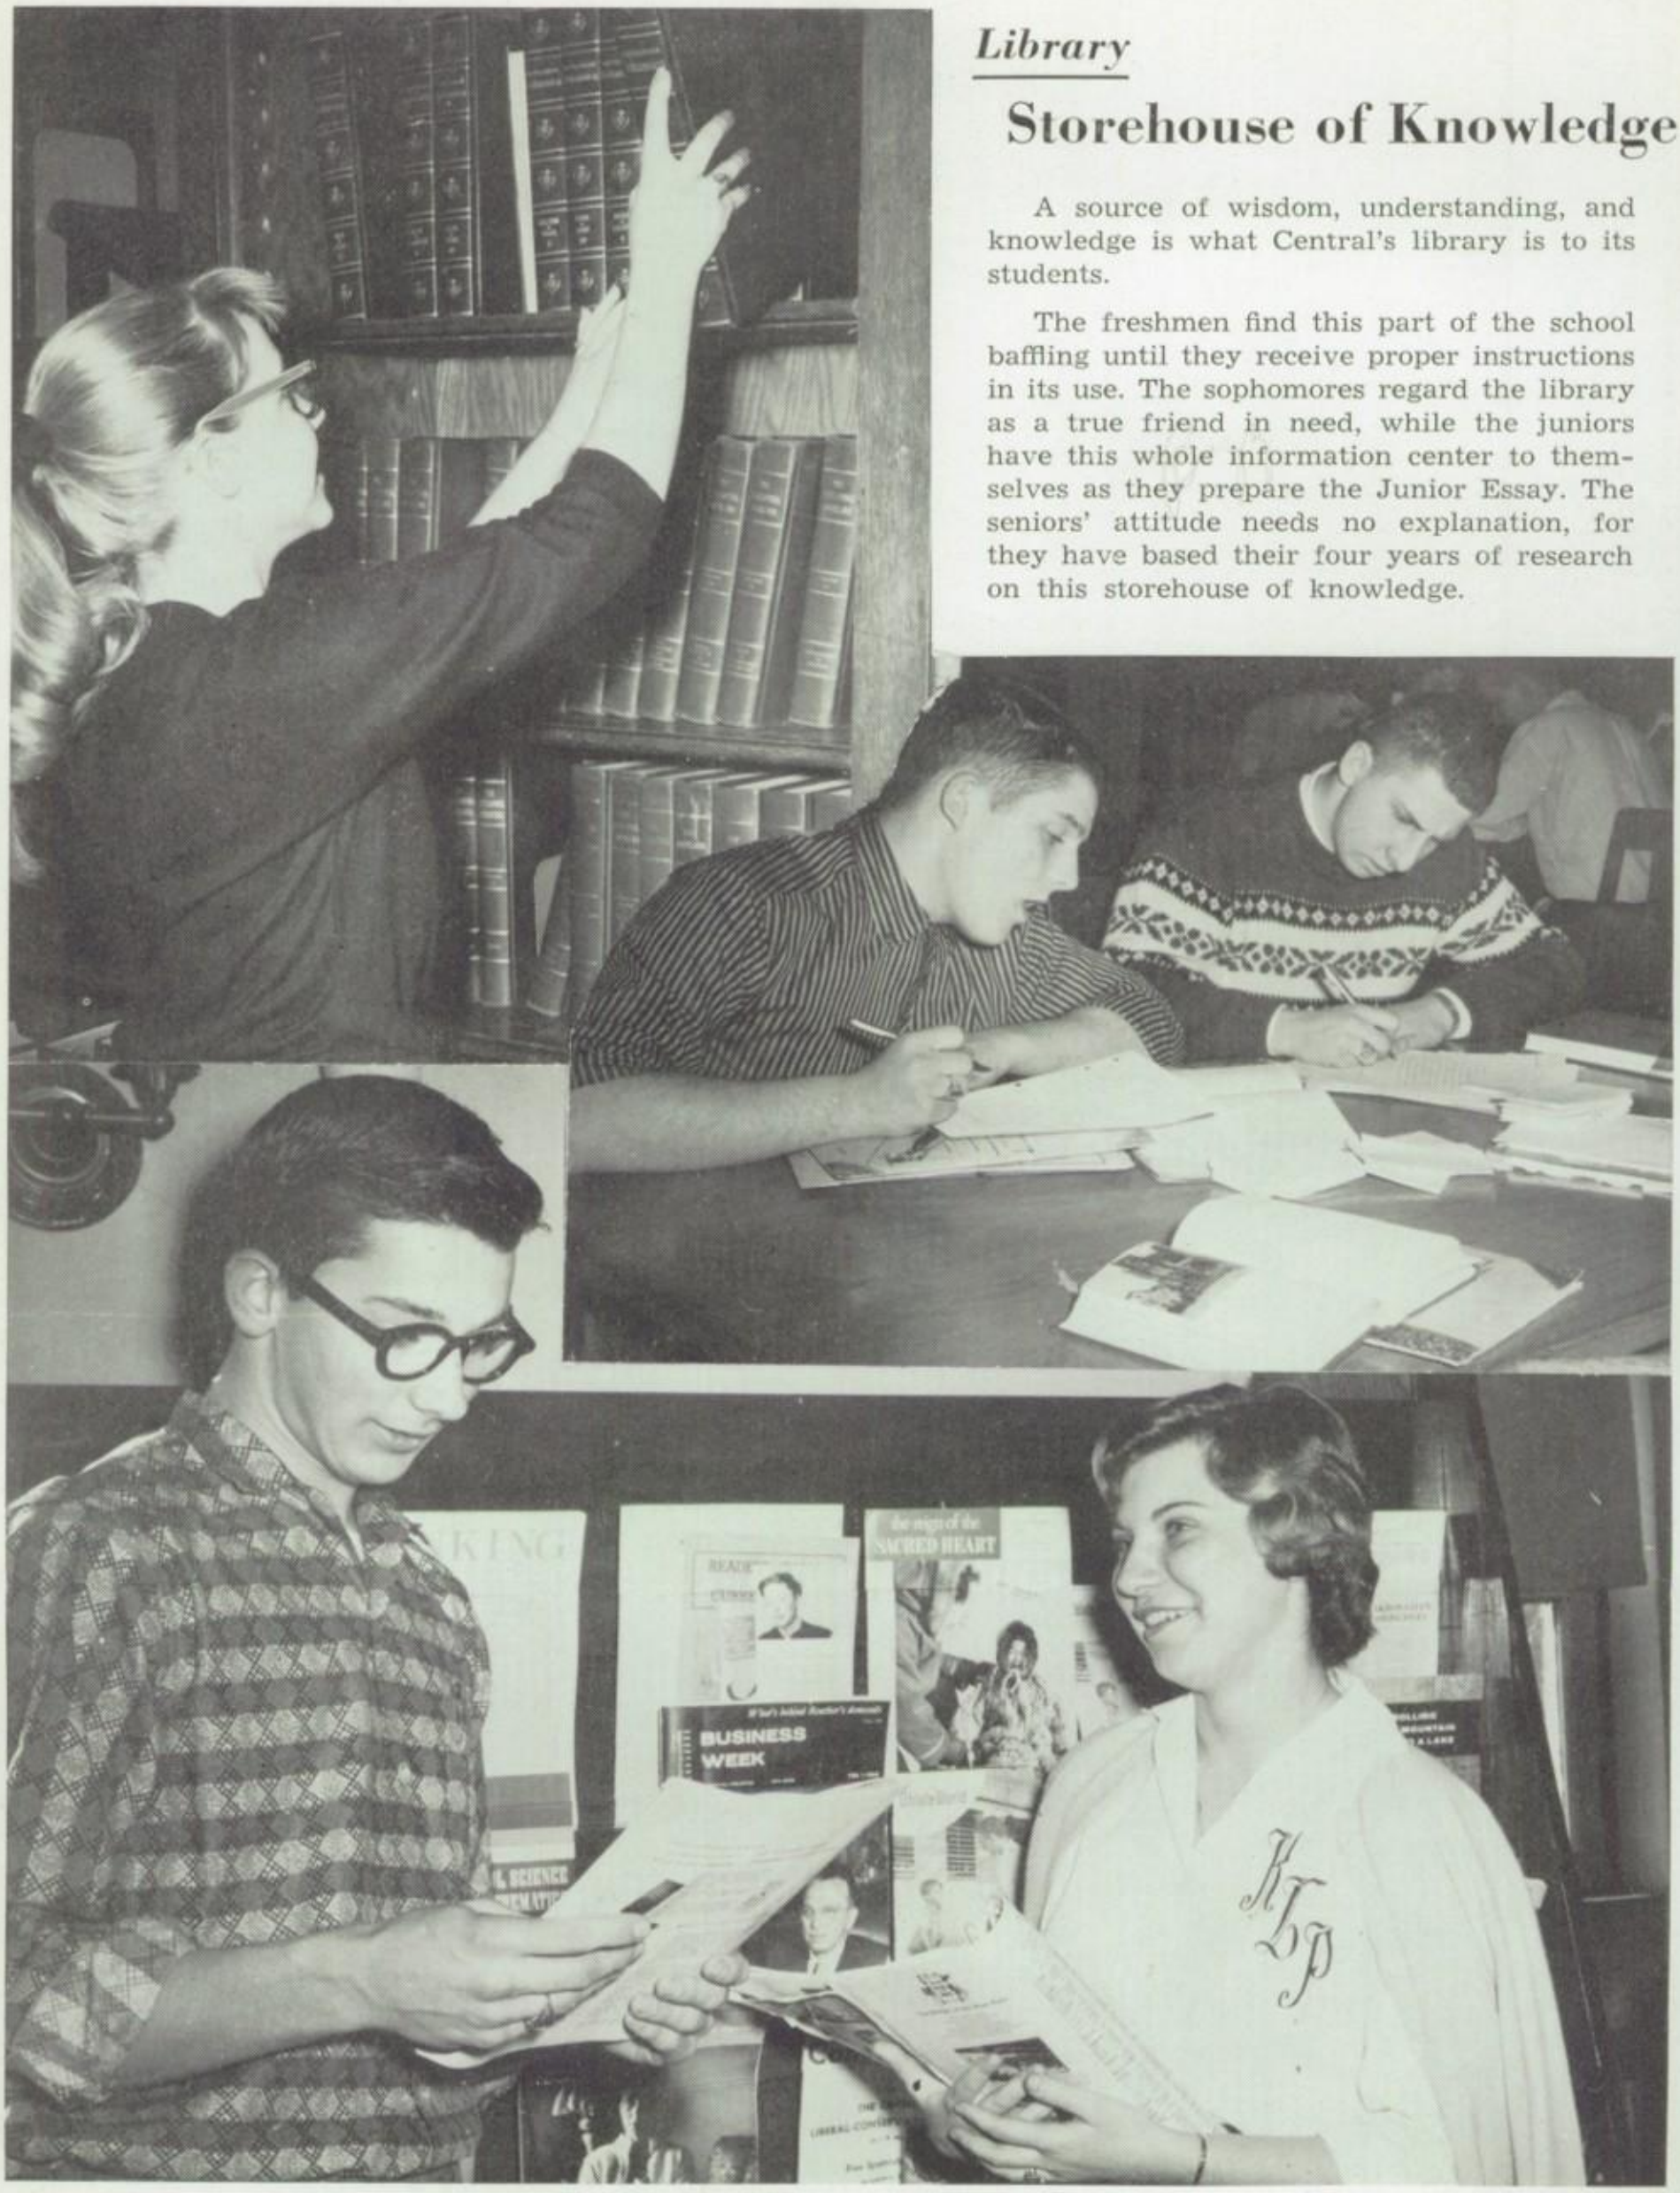
1. What are you listening to, Jane?
2. How are your fingers, Lorraine?
3. That record must be interesting.
4. Keep your eyes on those books.

Library

Storehouse of Knowledge

A source of wisdom, understanding, and knowledge is what Central's library is to its students.

The freshmen find this part of the school baffling until they receive proper instructions in its use. The sophomores regard the library as a true friend in need, while the juniors have this whole information center to themselves as they prepare the Junior Essay. The seniors' attitude needs no explanation, for they have based their four years of research on this storehouse of knowledge.



1. J. Haefner reaches for a high one. 2. T. Fortner and T. Perna busy on research work for their junior essays.
3. L. Aubry and K. Potrzebowski check latest magazines.

Sports

Sports Mentors

Coach Richard Finn—As Central's Athletic Director, Mr. Finn has energetically promoted all athletics at Central for the benefit of the students. It is his belief that high school athletics are for the students and he has worked hard to see that they continue that way.

Mr. Finn, a graduate of Lima's St. Rose High School, received his BSE from Ohio State where he captained the Buckeye baseball team in his senior year. Besides being athletic director he coaches the freshman football team and the varsity baseball team.

Richard Baisch—During the season Dick, a fullback on the Toledo University eleven, gave valuable help to the Irish Backs.

Coach Dan Piloseno—Before coming to Central Mr. Piloseno, a graduate of North Carolina State, coached at Bellaire, St. John, Cleveland Heights, Dayton and Boston Universities, and Steubenville Central Catholic. At Central where he coaches wrestling, bowling, intermurals, he has gained the reputation as the finest scout and line coach in the area.

Coach Dick Gordon—Through his efforts as line coach, Mr. Gordon, a member of Central's coaching staff for the past two years, has aided the team in its climb to ninth place in the State.

While at DeVilbiss High School, from which he graduated, he was awarded All-City lineman title. After receiving his BE degree from Toledo University, he continued his football career at Central. During the past season he has inspired the defensive work of the team.

Coach Tom McHugh—Under the direction of Mr. McHugh, Central has for the second time, taken the second place in the city standings. Mr. McHugh is no stranger to the gridiron for he not only played for Central but also for Notre Dame and professionally for the Ottawa Roughriders. Through his work with the boys he has been able to instill in them a vigorous spirit and determination to become one of the greatest teams in the city.

Joseph Thomas—A graduate of Central, Joe, who is studying for his degree in education at Toledo University, was assistant coach during the past football season.

Central's Fighting Irish defeated in the first game, came back to win or tie all other games in the season. Team enthusiasm and confidence made these victories possible. Near the end of the season, Central's Irish pushed their way to second place in the city league race. Later they clinched ninth place in the state standings, placing two schools from Toledo in the top ten.

The 1957-1958 season proved to be a successful year for the Central gridders and student body as a whole because of the prestige gained by our victorious team on the playing field.

Basketball

Marking his second season as Central Catholic basketball coach, Mr. Robert Nichols came up with another fine squad. Though the Irish were not always a consistent team they did win nine, while losing nine. However, in the tournament, the Fighting Irish showed their true greatness by defeating Libbey and St. Francis. The Irish then defeated DeVilbiss in a thrilling overtime game to win the sectional trophy. In the finals of the District, our small but determined boys put up a tremendous fight against Scott. But the taller Scott boys were just too much. The season ended with the student body showing its appreciation by giving the team a thunderous ovation as the runner-up trophy was presented to the team.

The 1958 Fighting Irish basketball team was coached by Mr. Robert Nichols. In his second year as varsity coach Mr. Nichols led his team to an even nine won—nine lost season. However, the tournament was a different story. Under his guidance the Irish became Sectional Champs and District Runners-up.

Mr. Nichols is a graduate of Toledo University, where he played varsity basketball for three years.

During the sports season the grunts and groans which emerged from the gym each day until 5:30 p.m., were evidence that wrestling was in progress.

Confronted by a long roster of candidates, Coach Piloseno planned that decisions as to who would represent the school in matches, would be made by the contenders themselves. He matched them in a "winner wrestles" plan in order to form his first team. Although experience was lacking in the lineup, Irish spirit prevailed, and though off to a slow start, the team finished strong winning five of their last six matches.

Central's wrestlers brought home a total of 55 points and a fourth place in the Regional Tournament which included grapplers from different schools in this area.

The tourney crowned champs, in their weight divisions, included Tom Kern and Pat Reilly. Consolation medals were presented to Bob Woytowich (heavyweight) and Chuck Oswald (138) who placed third (this qualified them for the State Meet). Dick Szymanski (165) took a fourth place position.

In the State Tournament held at Lakewood St. Edward's High School in Cleveland, Ohio, Pat Reilly was the only Centralite to place.

Annual Letterman Awards

Bill Compton, Buzz Fournier and Tom Kern were selected as the most valuable players in the 1958 football, basketball and wrestling seasons.

This year it was a "grand slam" for the seniors. Bill, a senior half-back, was chosen most valuable player because of his great defense ability and punting accuracy.

Buzz, who played center on the basketball team, earned the award by averaging 12.3 points a game and leading the team in rebounds.

Tom grappled his way to his award by being one of the champs of his division in the 1958 Regional Tournament.

Girls' Athletic League

The Girl's Athletic League, established at Central in 1930, has completed its twenty-eighth year as an athletic organization. Through the combined efforts of Miss Leonhardt who is also the instructor for all girl's gym classes, and the leadership of its officers the G.A.L. was again one of the active organizations in school.

The G.A.L. works as a group doing its best to attain a spirit of sportsmanship among its members. Bowling, horseback-riding, roasts, picnics and splash parties are among the activities offered by the G.A.L. to its members. The purpose of this organization is to promote and develop leadership, sportsmanship, athletic ability, and present physical and health programs to its members.

At the end of the year this organization sponsors an athletic banquet at which letters, chevrons, pins, bracelets and trophies are awarded to members who have earned sufficient points.

Student Council

In Central's Student Council, which functions as the center of student government, many opinions on religious, social and academic problems are aired.

At monthly meetings, where the four officers, the commissioners of the various departments, all class officers, a representative from each conference room and the presidents of all recognized organizations and clubs, meet, many of these problems are solved.

The Student Council, under the direction of Sister M. de Paul S.N.D. and Miss S. O'Connell, is affiliated with the National Association of Secondary Schools and the Toledo Area Student Council.

Under its supervision such activities as the Talent Assembly, Area Student Council Dance, Color Day, Tag Day, Junior-Senior Prom, the Homecoming Ceremonies, are sponsored during the year. It also sponsored the Polio, Community Chest, Catholic Chronicle, and Sales Tax Stamp Drives.

Apostolic Committee

The members of the Apostolic Committee under the direction of Sister Mary Charlotte, S. N. D., form an auxiliary branch of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. They endeavor to raise funds for the missions through the generous contributions of the students, and also by the annual sale of Christmas cards in which students actively participate.

Officers prepare mission bulletin board.

Eucharistic— Marian Committee

Members of this committee endeavor to promote devotion to Our Lady through campaigns designed to increase student attendance at Mass and encourage them to receive communion more frequently. They culminate their efforts by the annual May Convocation during which a statute of the Blessed Virgin is crowned in the presence of the entire student body.

Organization class officers: J. Chamberlain, V. Sobb, B. Albert, D. Yarton, J. Kakos, B. Lewandowski, G. Olzak, D. Kazmierski, M. Grimshaw, W. Walker, J. Martin, S. Irmen, D. Mullins take time out to pose for a picture.

Library Club

What are some good books? Where do the retreat pamphlets come from? The answer is the Library Club. These boys and girls under the moderation of Sr. Mary Anthony O.S.U. secure these pamphlets and exhibit book reviews to aid students in the selection of decent literature.

St. John Berchmans Society

The St. John Berchmans Sanctuary Society, founded at Central in 1939, aims to foster religious vocations among the students. In order to carry out its purpose, the members of the society serve daily Mass, Benediction on First Friday, and on the retreat days, and take part in the annual May Convocation.

This organization is under the moderatorship of Sister Mary Louis S.N.D.

J. Czarnecki, J. Aubry, B. Krall, J. Brandewie, J. Jacobs, officers of acolytes.

St. Hilda's Guild

Members of this guild are offered the opportunity of caring for the Chapel of Christ the King. Because of the generosity of these girls, the chapel is fittingly prepared for all liturgical functions. They dedicate their work to the glory of God through Mary. The girls are divided into three orders: apprentice, journeyman, and master, each with its own duties to perform.

J. Weilinski, J. Freppel, B. Miller, K. Palmer, make ready chapel adornments.

Art Apostolate Guild

Central Catholic Art Apostolate Guild consists of students from the girls art classes. Its chief duties are to spread Christ through art.

Their meetings consist of discussions on the possibilities of raising the standards of art appreciation among the students.

Girls' C.A.A.

The ideal of this organization is the encouragement of Christian Art in student life and in the home.

The main project of the school year is the entering of art work in the "Enthronement of the Sacred Heart Contest."

Sister Joanne's girls take charge of implanting these important ideals in the other students.

Boys' C.A.A.

The members of this division of the Catholic Art Apostolate under the direction of Sr. Genevive take charge of the bulletin board in the school entrance, changing it bi-monthly. The C.A.A. contains a student Spiritual Guidance Board that creates inspirational posters in order to fulfill their pledge of offering all art work to God. Projects of plaques, statues, clay models and paintings done by these boys are displayed in the hall outside the art room.

Young Christian Students

YCS, one of the most important organizations at Central, as well as one of the largest, tries to restore the practice of a Christian way of life for the students by its weekly meetings and many fascinating activities. This organization helps the students with problems concerning not only school, but home as well. Indirectly, then, YCS also aids society.

Meetings are held by the different groups once a week. The Gospel is read and discussed and then some social problem is brought up for the members to try and help solve.

Among the many activities of YCS are: the annual YCS Study Day, the Library Pamphlet Service, and the annual Career Day, which is probably the most important as far as the whole student body is concerned.

On this day, each student at Central chooses, from a varied group, a career they might be interested in knowing more about. They are sent to a room where a qualified speaker tries to give them all the information possible about that particular career. The student is also given the chance to ask questions about the subject. This day gives the students an opportunity to broaden their outlook on life.

Future Nurses of America

One of Central's outstanding clubs is the Future Nurses of America whose purpose is to foster any interest in nursing.

In cooperation with the Toledo Catholic Charities, the members give of their time and effort to help needy families.

Central is also affiliated with the Area Council of Nurses in which Marcia Jurek and Pat O'Bryan hold office.

M. Jurek presents Mr. J. Roberts to C. Meinen, P. O'Bryan, P. McLauglin, M. McQuillan, F.N.A. officers.

Math Club

This club consists of the Junior and Senior math students. Individual members of the club prepare their own program each week. Members tend to study phases of Math not covered in the classroom.

Some of the activities of this club are to promote student Math conventions, carry out comprehensive contest among the students, study of college entrance exams, and research projects exhibits.

L. Klotz, C. Ritter, C. Sattler, T. Carr.

Future Teachers of America

Developing leadership in the students; cultivating the qualities necessary for teachers; and informing students of the advantages of the profession are the aims of the Future Teachers.

The club provided guest speakers, among whom were Miss Irene O'Brien, organizer of Central's F.T.A. and Sister Mary Lawrence, Dean of Mary Manse College.

Carolyn Culbertson speaks to members of F.T.A.

Biology Club

This organization now in its fourth year of existence, tries to create for a student an appreciation of Science, by promoting projects outside the classroom. These projects include experiments, artificial models, surveys and special studies.

The outstanding undertaking of this organization is the District and State Science Day at Bowling Green University in which the members participate.

Marcia Thornton, secretary; Barbara Beyer, treasurer; Donald Beck, president; John Wiesolek, vice president.

Aquinas History Club

Sophomore and Junior students interested in social studies are members of the History Club.

The purpose of this club is to enable the students to become better informed of the historical significance of various landmarks and events in our own locality. This is done by means of research, oral reports, debates, and trips to key places in our area.

T. Carr, P. Kokocinski, M. Auth, J. Graytop, Sr. M. of Mercy, C. Czubek, M. Bozymowski, J. Walker.

Civics Club

The chief aim of this organization of Seniors is to instruct its members in the workings of our government and to teach them the obligations and privileges of American citizenship. This year members toured the Toledo Chamber of Commerce under the direction of Mr. James Garvin. Senior members participated in the annual trip to New York and Washington D.C. conducted under the auspices of the school.

Norma Prusakiewicz and President George Oravecz write out plans for the Civics Club trip to New York and Washington.

Chess Club

"Modesty in defeat, Courage—but always thoughtful", is the motto of the Chess Club at Central. This club aims to enrich the intellectual faculties of its members while promoting good sportsmanship. The members who meet every Tuesday to play chess under the moderation of Father Hernady, enter high school competitive contests.

B. Koester, T. Mazuchowski, B. Kinneah, P. Keefe, D. Corcoran, C. Ritter, Fr. Hernady, A. Stipes, President C. Kraus.

Radio Club

The Radio (Ham) Club at Central has been in existence for six years. Its members, who are prospective "ham" licensees, receive instruction in radio theory from Greg Balser and in radio code from Larry Staczak at their weekly meetings. They also maintain and operate their own radio station W8QVJ through which they contact fellow hams throughout the area.

D. Metzger, G. Balser, B. Gilb, and L. Stasiak broadcast over W8QVJ.

Camera Club

Membership in the Camera Club is open to any shutterbug at Central. Sister Genevieve, the club moderator, takes pride in displaying the photography of members on a bulletin board outside the boys' art room reserved for this purpose. Students enrolled in this club are taught the process of developing film and other fine points of camera artistry.

Officers P. Johnson, T. Tucholski, J. Kerscher, C. Czubek demonstrate the enlarger to Camera Club members.

P. Cairl, P. Kokocinski, J. Rang, M. King, J. Kruzak, M. Daly, R. Gilb, D. Sullivan—choristers for Christ the King.

Choral Group

Lovers of God and lovers of music is a phrase applicable to the Choral Group. They have by being present to sing, made it possible for Central to have High Mass daily in the school chapel.

Mrs. Roger Weiher
Dramatics Director

Under the direction of Mrs. Roger H. Weiher, dramatic director, the Senior Class presented, "Gramercy Ghost" produced this year in Central's auditorium November 22, 23, 24.

"Gramercy Ghost" relates the unusual experiences of Nancy Willard (Judy Kaiser) and a friendly ghost, Nathaniel Coombes (Bill Krall) who has been willed to Nancy by the late Miss Bullock. A real complication presents itself when Nancy's fiancee, Parker Burnett (Frank Justen) is sure she is losing her mind and makes plans, which almost succeed, to have her sent to a sanatorium. Nancy is saved when a newspaper reporter Charlie Stewart (Tom Tomczak) proves that her story about the ghost is true.

Supporting characters: the lawyer, Augusta Ames (Marilyn Martin); the housekeeper, Margaret Collins (Diane House); the policeman, Officer Morrison (Bruce Peterson); and the ambulance drivers, (Frances Krompak and Genelda Bushroe); along with Nathaniel's ghost friends, Rock Glover (Paul Fogel); Irv Jenkins (Ron Coy); and the girl (Marguerite Milka) provide a very complex yet very amusing story.

1. "This was Miss Bullock's will . . . ". 2. "Wait a minute, where do you think you're taking her?" 3. "Phoebe, I can explain!" 4. "But I don't want to see George Washington!" 5. "Parker, you can be so nice when you want to."

1. "Oklahoma!" 2. "Many a New Day" 3. Everything's up to date in "Kansas City."

'Oklahoma!'

This year the Music Department presented Rodgers' and Hammerstein's "Oklahoma!", at the State Theatre, April 25, 26, 27.

It's "Oh, What a Beautiful Mornin' " when Curly McLaine (Norman Clark) comes callin' on Miss Laurey Williams (Dorothy Lewandowski). He has come to invite her to go with him in "The Surrey With the Fringe on Top," to a box social. Laurey has already told Jud Fry (Tom Tomczak) that she would go with him, so Curly escorts Aunt Eller (Marcia Jurek).

Laurey is perplexed about Jud, whom she fears, so she buys a "potion" supposed to help her see things clear from peddler Ali Hakim (Mike Syring) who thinks "It's a Scandal!, It's an Outrage!" because Andrew Carnes (Bruce Peterson) says Ali should marry Ado Annie Carnes (Phyllis Seeley) for whispering sweet nothings in her ear. Ali aids Will Parker (Bill Krall) in captivating Annie.

Curly and Laurey, after admitting "People Will Say We're In Love," become engaged. On the night of their marriage, Jud appears in a jealous rage. A fight between Jud and Curly ensues, Jud is killed when he falls on his own knife. A trial is held on the spot, Curly is declared "Not guilty!", and the cast closes the show with the title song, "Oklahoma!"

1. Laurey and Curly sing "People Will Say We're In Love."
2. Jud and Curly.
3. Ali Hakim gives Annie a "Persian Goodbye" while Will looks on.
4. Curley and Laurey argue — Aunt Eller disapproves.

Music Department

Central's Music Department provides many and varied activities for its students. The Mixed Chorus, Orchestra, and Band are conducted by Mr. Gerald V. DePrisco. Classes in Music Appreciation, Harmony and Theory, and the Girls' Choral groups are directed by Sister M. Alameda, R. S. M.

Orchestra

The orchestra of twenty-two members, under the direction of Mr. G. V. DePrisco, provided the music for the Senior Play "Gramercy Ghost"; they performed at the Christmas assembly, and at the Spring Concert. Highlighting their season was their performance for the operetta, "Oklahoma", and the musical program for the Bishop's rally for the "new high school" campaign.

Band

The Band performances added color and spirit to all the football games with their splendid half-time shows. They participated in the Christmas parade, the Toy Bowl with the CYO, and played at many assemblies. Their out-of-town trip this year was to St. Edward's, Lakewood. They performed at the Football Banquet, the Spring Concert, and at an Exchange High School Concert. The Commencement program climaxes their activities.

Radiant Royalty Reigns At S. C. Activities

During the half-time ceremonies at the Central-Macomber football game, October 18, Gerry Puccetti was crowned Homecoming Queen by Tom Druffel, assisted by last year's queen Carol Stygowski. Gerry's attendants were Carole Sattler, Kathy Tremmel, Lynn Baertschi, and Norma Prusakiewicz.

Central's candidate for Area Student Council queen was Peggy Del Brocco, who represented C.C.H.S. at the annual Area Student Council dance held at the Naval Armory on February 11.

J. Stearns, D. Szymanski, A. Sullivan, A. Kuzma sign for next dance.

Junior-Senior Prom

This year the Junior-Senior prom planned by the Junior class under the leadership of co-chairmen Janet Sullivan and Dick Szymanski and their moderator Sr. M. De Paul, was held in the Naval Armory on May 9. Students danced to the music of Jack Runyan's Orchestra which enhanced the theme, Springtime Sonata.

R. Lewandowski, G. Olzak co-crown Central's Queen.

May Convocation

Highlighting the spiritual campaigns conducted by the Eucharistic-Marian Committee, is the annual May coronation of Our Blessed Lady. This year Robert Lewandowski and Gloria Olzak, as outstanding members of the Committee, were given the honor of crowning Mary, Queen of Central.

H. McMillan, B. Knurek, C. Sattler, R. Doppler, M. Morrison, D. Swiergosz, J. Merz, B. Mizerny, R. Ciesielczyk, J. Duncan, top ten seniors.

Graduation

June 11, at the Sports Arena will be a great night for the graduating class of 1958. Barbara Knurek and James Duncan representing the departing seniors bid fond farewell to our dear Alma Mater. Although we feel anticipation for the things to come, there is still a feeling of sorrow at the loss of a great and wonderful influence in our lives.

Glass Has Made A Difference

Now is the time to reflect upon the "good ole' days" in school — the many friends, your favorite teachers, sports and dances and parties. But when looking at today's school architecture, we think you'll agree that glass has made a difference!

Here's picture-proof that school corridors don't have to be dark and dreary tunnels. No longer must walls be solid and opaque. Today, more attention is being paid to daylight and view.

When reflecting upon the advantages of this glass age, we think you'll agree that the "good new days" are better.

To Mary One of the neatest kids I know, with one of the greatest personalities ever heard of. I have known you for a bit
2 years, & hope to know you about 106 years. I think through the years our friendship has grown. I'm sure our friendship will never die since I know you will always be one of my best friends
even though I'm not yours
well I'd better sign off for now
I don't have any more room

Bye.

you're a real swell kid
don't let anyone tell you different

To Mary,
A real great kid who will do a lot for the class
Good luck, Frank '61

Mary, a real cute girl that I just met a couple weeks ago. Good luck next year.
